WELCOME REVEREND JOSH SHERFEY AS FIRST NEWTON'S PASTOR!

We are overjoyed to welcome Reverend Josh Sherfey and his wife, Shannon to the First Newton family! Josh and Shannon live in Hickory, along with their two fur babies, Blaze and Satchel. Josh comes to us from his last appointment as the Missional Engagement Director for the Catawba Valley District, while Shannon is a physician and partner at Newton Family Physicians. Josh and Shannon have written introduction letters for us to help us get to know them! You will find those letters on the inside pages of this newsletter. Josh's first Sunday to lead us in worship will be February 9, 2020. Josh, we look forward to your years of ministry with First Newton!

Meet Josh & Shannon Sherfey

We thought it might be nice for us to introduce each other to you so you get the inside scoop!

Meet Josh (by Shannon)

Josh was born in Indiana and moved to NC at the age of four. He grew up on Kerr Lake, outside of Henderson, about 45 minutes north of Durham. His mother was an English teacher & his father taught Special Education for years before going into sales. Josh has two younger sisters. Sarah lives in Newton with their mother and is the librarian at the Maiden library branch. Lizzie is a United Methodist minister and lives in Wisconsin with her husband and daughter.

Josh & I met while undergrads at Duke, where we were both involved in the Duke Wesley Methodist Fellowship. He graduated with a B.A. in History and a minor in Latin. After spending six months in Bolivia doing mission work at an orphanage, he started seminary at Duke Divinity School. We were married during his first year of seminary in 1997. Josh served as an Associate Pastor at Main Street UMC in Kernersville for 3 years. He was then appointed to Hickory Grove UMC in Greensboro, which was an excellent fit. If it weren't for my career, we would've stayed there much longer. But, I got an offer to join Newton Family Physicians so we moved to Statesville where he served Bethlehem UMC. After three years there, Josh decided to go back to school & he completed a ThM (masters of theology) at Duke Divinity School in 2009 while we lived in Newton. We even worshiped here at First Newton some while he was back in school! After that break from the parish, Josh was appointed to serve as senior pastor at First UMC Taylorsville where we stayed for 8 years. Over the past 2 years, Josh has taken a sabbatical and then has been working as the Missional Engagement Director for the Catawba Valley District.

While in Taylorsville, the church we served grew tremendously and underwent a major transformation. We had outgrown our space in the historic downtown location so we purchased a vacant car dealership to renovate into our new campus. Everyone was all in for this endeavor because with our new building we had a larger space all on one level with better parking, great visibility and an innovative path to reach those who may not be in relationship with Christ. We wanted to use the downtown space to meet the needs in Alexander County so today this facility is known as the FUMC Mission Campus and now houses low cost nonprofit office space for the United Way and the Shelter Home for Women that combats domestic violence. The old sanctuary space is available for community church services and a music ministry for underprivileged children. Most exciting is the use of the fellowship hall and kitchen as The Café, a much-needed soup kitchen that is the result of a partnership with 8 churches of various denominations, much like your Corner Table.

(By the way, just so you all know, he'd prefer to be called just "Josh" rather than "Pastor Josh" and if you have to make it more official for some reason, then "Reverend Sherfey.")

Now on to the more interesting stuff. Josh is one of those people who exudes love and joy. He is full of energy and life and his gregarious personality allows him to connect with lots of different people of all ages. He is also very genuine and authentic and isn't afraid to tell it like it is.

Josh loves animals, particularly dogs, and I knew when we got married that we'd always have pets. We've had 6 boxers over the years and currently have Blaze who is 4 years old and Satchel who is a 9 year old rescue. Some days I think he loves our boxers more than me! We were never able to have children so the dogs are our kids and have become quite spoiled.

I can't think of a single person who loves music more than Josh but God has not blessed him with many musical talents. In fact, I urge you to turn off his microphone during the songs and hymns. He loves to sing & usually does so "lustily and with good courage" as John Wesley taught. He secretly (OK, maybe not so secretly) loves musicals & can sing every word to the songs from The Sound of Music, Annie, Big River, The Music Man, and of course - Hamilton! When Josh grows up, he'd like to be Spiderman, a drummer in a rock band, an archaeologist or an astronaut. Or maybe a Star Trek captain. Or even a Jedi.

We both love to run on a regular basis and have been known to make travel plans based on races. Josh has run 12 marathons & we typically try to run several 5K's, 10K's and half marathons throughout the year. He also enjoys road biking and has recently started doing triathlons, completing a half Iron Man in September. He will be doing another half Iron Man in April and plans to complete a full Iron Man in September of this year. Pretty impressive for someone who just started swimming last year.

Since meeting Josh over half a lifetime ago, he has helped me to become more adventurous. We've gone sky diving, SCUBA diving, hiked to the top of a volcano, taken helicopter rides in cool places and gone flying to lots of local spots as Josh has his private pilot's license. Josh loves to travel & explore new places and has had the privilege of going to the Middle East, South Africa, several European countries and many Latin American countries. He has a heart for missions & Hispanic ministry and I'm certain many of you will join us on VIM teams to Central & South America during our time with you.

Josh cannot wait to be in ministry with First Newton over the coming years. We think this is a great fit and we're thrilled to be part of your faith community. Let's get out there and make a difference!

A Final Word from Willis

Dear Family and Friends of First Newton,

Overwhelming ... overwhelming is the word I have used to describe what you did for me on our final Sunday together. The beautiful flowers showered upon me, the laying on of hands to bless my departure, the elegant table decorations in the Fellowship Hall, the delicious meal, the creative gifts and the occasion to be "Queen for a Day" will be memories I will treasure for years to come. Thank you for all of your expressions of love and friendship. The outpouring of kindness and generosity was simply overwhelming and my heart was deeply touched. I will be forever grateful for the unique and meaningful ways you sent me forth from this appointment.

Friends, you are a generous bunch and I am confident that the kindness and generosity you shared with David and me will be the same kindness and care you share with Rev. Josh Sherfey and his spouse, Dr. Shannon Sherfey. You are extremely blessed to be receiving this couple into the church family. Please make them feel as welcomed and as loved as you have the Greenes. It will be an easy task - they are terrific people! Your future together is bright and I know that God's abundant grace will be upon your new partnership.

For all that has been - THANKS!

To all that shall be - YES!

With a grateful heart,
Willis

Meet Josh & Shannon Sherfey

We thought it might be nice for us to introduce each other to you so you get the inside scoop!

Meet Shannon \(by Josh\)

Shannon grew up in Severna Park, Maryland, which is located between Annapolis and Baltimore. Her parents expanded their business and moved to St. Augustine, Florida right after we got married. She has 2 younger sisters, who are twins (and they still gang up on her today). Megan lives in St. Augustine with her two children and is a social worker/therapist. Carmen lives in Philadelphia with her husband and two children and is a VP in finance and accounting. Shannon grew up as an active member of Severna Park UMC so we've both been Methodist for more years than we can count. Eerily, we were even baptized at the age of 12 on the exact same day, her in Maryland and me in North Carolina!

Shannon & I met while undergrads at Duke University (actually the first day of freshman year!) where we were both active in the Wesley Methodist Fellowship. She graduated with a degree in Psychology and then got her M.D. from Wake Forest University School of Medicine. She stayed in Winston-Salem to complete her residency training in family medicine at Wake Forest. Shannon worked at MedCentral in High Point for a few years before becoming a partner at Newton Family Physicians in 2005. The practice is thriving as one of the last physician-owned groups in the county and she hopes to stay there until retirement.

Have you ever seen the T. V. show Friends? Well, Shannon IS Monica. She's super organized and a neat freak. Luckily, some of her obsessive traits have rubbed off on me over the years (and even more luckily, some of my laid back ways have rubbed off on her as well). She's also quite the chef. She loves to go to the Hickory farmers market in the summer and enjoys collecting cookbooks. (Can we start a letter writing campaign to bring a Whole Foods to Catawba County?) For health and athletic performance reasons, we have recently started eating a plant-based (or vegan) diet. Not sure how long that will last but so far we both feel better. (I do, however, really miss ice cream!!) One of our friends said all we eat is twigs and weeds but I assure you, there are plenty of unhealthy plant-based options out there too when we need to splurge!

When she's not cleaning or organizing, making lists or planning something, Shannon likes to run and do yoga or go hiking. We both do several half marathons a year and she's gotten quite speedy over the past few years! She recently got a road bike so has started joining me on some rides. She's not keen on the swimming piece so I'm not sure if I can convince her to do triathlons - at least not yet! We both love to travel and explore new places and try to take a big trip every few years - so far to Greece, Italy and South Africa. Asheville is one of our favorite local destinations where several of our best friends live so we tend to find ourselves there quite often.

Unlike me, Shannon has been blessed with a beautiful singing voice and a natural talent for music. I'm sure she is looking forward to being a part of the music ministry at First. We are both anticipating a wonderful season of ministry with you and the community. Shannon quite simply makes me a better husband and human. We complement each other well and we push one another in areas we need to improve. She is extremely grounded and compassionate with the love of Christ at the center of her being. One of her many gifts is hospitality - making folks feel at home both in their environment and in their own skin. I am sure she will bring that gift to bear at First Newton. She also is a fierce champion for human equality in all its forms and I join her in striving for this reality as God's kingdom come on earth as it is in heaven.

BUDGET OVERVIEW

Ever wonder what the Liturgical Colors of the Church Mean?

Watch your Newsletters, Bulletins & E-News this year, as our Scholar in Residence, Jonathan LeMaster-Smith, explains each color change.

Liturgical Color History: GREEN

From Advent to Christ the King Sunday, the Christian year offers many stories, rituals, and colors. The color we most often see in our church is green, for what is called Ordinary Time. However, no time in the Christian year is very ordinary. Just like the new seeds sprouting in spring, green symbolizes hope, life, and anticipation. The focus of these times are the life, teachings, and actions of Christ and the which shape the way Christians are to grow in their faith.

Scholar In Residence
